Statement of Facts

Discrimination because of Religious Affiliation!

On April 3rd 2014, the Islamic Communities: Orthodox Sunni, Nation of Islam, Nation of Gods and Earths (5% Nation), Moorish Science Temple of America (M.S.T. of A), sent a complaint to warden Cheryl Price (See Exhibit A).

All Islamic communities had their services suspended because of an unknown inmate at an unknown time who wrote racist remarks on the restroom wall along with a swastika. The second incident involved a prisoner or prisoner's whom burglarized an utility shed located on the chapel grounds.

There has been incidents of inmates using derogatory language, instead of officer's who's assigned to chapel writing up said inmate, the chaplain saw fit to suspend whatever Islamic group from the chapel.

The Nation of Gods and Earths (5% Nation) has had their service moved to the gym because of an education classes being conducted in the chapel "See Exhibit B" On Thursday. "U.A.B Body Health"

On 8-4-15, Inmate Craig Evans sent complaint ("See Exhibit C") to Chaplain, Warden, and Commissioner complaining about the Chaplain superceding our religious services for educational classes even though this facility has an educational wing that was unused at said times.

We have been discriminated against strictly for Religious affiliation. No Christian service has been Relegated to the gym for no reason.

Relief

We ask for injunctive Relief, so we can't have our services suspended because of one individual using foul language and that we not be discriminated against and be treated like every other Christian service, i.e., no moving our services out of chapel for educational classes.

Re: Disallowance of Islamic Groups to assemble in Institutional Chapel...

Complaint

This is a complaint filed by the above
Islamic communities, state prisoners, alleging violation of their constitutional rights, and seek administrative relief, declaratory judgment, and injunctive relief.

Facts

On or about the weekend of March 29th thru the 31st, two seperate incidents occurred within and on the perimeter of the institutional chapel. These incidents occurred during an allotted time, when there were no Islamic groups schedule for the chapel. The first incident involved an unknown prisoner whom wrote racist remarks on the restroom wall along with a swastika. The second incident also involved an unknown prisoner or prisoners whom burglarized an utility shed located on the chapel grounds. Needless to say, that both incidents centered around the security and not the issue of a religious sect having an outside sponsor to occupy the chapel. Due to the fact that no Islamic group has a sponsor that can attend every service, every scheduled time, it is a clear and direct assault on the Islamic communities and a violation of our first Amendment rights, and equal treatment under the law.

Remedy

We respectfully request that our services be held in the institutional chapel, and not the East Gym.

Re: Nation of Islam

8-4-15

To: Whatever Warden in Charge

To: Commissioner Jeff Dunn

On this day, 8-4-15, the Nation of Islam service was relegated to the gym because of an educational class being conducted in the chapel. Donaldson Corr. Facility has an educational wing that can accommodate any and all classes. All Islamic services has at some time been relegated to the gym for one reason or another and no Christian service has suffered similar fate.

All Islamic services has been scheduled and no educational class should supersede them in the one place delegated for spiritual worship. This has been an ongoing issue. Any further attempts to blatantly discriminate will be resolved in Federal court immediately.

- : The fans are too loud for us to speak over in the gym.
- : In the height of summer we are entitled to same place of worship as everyone else.
- : Discriminatory treatment because of religious affiliation is strictly prohibited by 1st Amendment.
